SYNOPSIS

This course describes the law relating to strata developments, in particular, condominiums. It highlights the rights and responsibilities of the developer, owners and council members, and clarifies the common doubts and questions about strata living.

OBJECTIVES

- To understand the role of the various stakeholders in a strata development
- To enable estate agents to better advise potential buyers and owners of their responsibilities and rights in private condominiums and management corporations
- To clarify doubts and questions often asked about living in condominiums.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Be familiar with the law governing strata developments
- Be familiar with the rights and obligations of owners of condominiums.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Salespersons who are selling private condominiums and other strata developments
- Anyone including owners and those are interested in purchasing condominium properties.
