Construction Industry mid 2015 Reload — Contractual & Appropriate Dispute Resolution Issues

About the Speaker

Anil Changaroth has been in practice since 1995 after graduating as a Barrister of England & Wales (Middle Temple) and a five-year career as a infantry officer with the Singapore Armed Forces before that. He established CHANGAROTH CHAMBERS LLC on 1st July 2014, a commercial law firm focusing on Counselling the Business and the Business of Counselling.

His work primarily involves commercial, civil, corporate and criminal dispute resolution with a focus on construction related mediation, adjudication, arbitration and litigation, representing parties in the Asian region. While primarily a litigator, Anil, a fellow of the Chartered and Singapore Institutes of Arbitrators, is also an Arbitrator and Mediator, on the panels of regional institutes.

Since the start of his practice, he has been in-house counsel and head of the Contracts Advisory and Dispute Management Services in Davis Langdon and Seah. Subsequently, he was also been part of the international arbitration practice group of Lovells Lee & Lee.

Anil also holds a Masters of Science in Construction Law & Arbitration from King's College, London's joint programme with the National University of Singapore. He was the honorary treasurer of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators 2011-2013 and chairman of the Society of Construction Law (Singapore) 2012 – 2014 and currently SCL(S)'s international liaison to SCL (International).

Synopsis

The afternoon's seminar will have Anil discussing the current contractual and appropriate dispute resolution issues facing the construction industry, namely:

1. Contractual matters — including considerations in entering a contract, including silence, follow up provisions, and signing of contract documents.
2. Dispute Resolution matters — including expert appointments; service of, repeat claims and adjudicator's powers in adjudication; and stay of court proceedings in favour of arbitration.
3. New trends such as the Singapore International Mediation Centre's Arbitration-Mediation-Arbitration protocol and Online DR protocols.
